[Document title]

SHINN / SINN ש TRANSFORMATION TO ENGLISH H

A list of mostly English words wherein the Hebrew letter ש shinn or ש sinn was occasionally withered / transformed into a fellow fricative H sound in their eventual transformations into English words - as a result of the Tower of Babel event
– e.g. Hebrew שאול [netherworld, grave] and Eng. HELL

Hebrew	Translit.	meaning		derivative	Explanation/ comment
שש	shesh	six		hexa	Grk. six
שערה	Sa'araw	hair		hair
שאול	She'ol	Underworld of the dead		Hell – Ger. holle	hell
שר	sar	Officer, prince <sup>3</sup> minister		Ancient Egypt. hry	One who is in charge
שריון	syrion	Armour also mountain <sup>4</sup>		Hermon הרמון	Other name of same Mountain
שמים	shomayim	Sky, heavens		Ger. himmel	sky
שנא	soneh	Hate, enemy		OFr. haine	Hate, hatred see next
שנא	soneh	Hate, enemy		heinous	?

<sup>2</sup> Whence herrschen [rule, control] & herrlich masterful, magnificent- Also herrisch to Hirsch [deer] a stately creature – Cf. relationship between Hebrew צבי [deer] and צבי [magnificence, beauty] [maybe also the fish – herring?]

<sup>4</sup> Mountain in North Israel, named armor because its height and inaccessibility deterred enemy invaders

שן	sheenan	Whet, sharpen		hone
ש ל base	Base SHL	disengage		hull <sup>5</sup>	That which is disengaged
שעה	Shaw'ah	Hour, time period		Lat. hora <sup>6</sup>	Hour, time, season
Hebrew	Translit.	meaning		derivative	Explanation/ comment
שבע	sheva	seven		Anc. Grk. Hepta, hebdo	Seven – Also Avestan hapta [seven]
שוק	shoke	Shank, thigh foreleg		Hock, hough	Area in human leg, joint in lower part of horse leg

Maybe Also –

Lat. humerus [shoulder] from שכמה – with elision of כ

Perhaps also שפך shofakh [to pour, to heap up] > heap

שכר Sokhar To hire, rent > hire with elision of כ

שטר sotar – to afflict, hit > HIT

Hebrew סוס sus [horse] into the O.E. hors, whence the English 'horse'<sup>7,8</sup>

<sup>5</sup> Also - shell

<sup>7</sup> Mozeson also mentions the Finnish 'hovose' [horse] - in which the middle vav / shuruk apparently assumed the role of the consant [V] – so that S – U –S suss became H – V- S hovose.

<sup>8</sup> As I see it, the word 'salt' derives from the Hebrew סלת [solet, so-les] which denotes 'a fine powder' and usually refers biblically to flour – Cf. 'smelling salts'. If this is so, it will serve to explain how the Greek word for 'salt' similarly became 'hals' αλς or 'halos' αλος at the Tower incident. Likewise, the word שעה sho'oh [hour, any period of time] may be the source of the word 'hour' and the Span. 'hora' [hour, time period], via the Grk. ωρα hora [any time period] – and perhaps, the source of 'era', as well.
